Section 4: How the Incident Was Discovered

The theft was discovered by the restaurant manager, Mr. Mohammed Ashraf K., at approximately 06:00 hrs on 14 November 2024 when he arrived to prepare for the morning shift. He found the rear kitchen door ajar and noticed that the prepared mandi chicken consignment intended for the lunch service was missing. No signs of forced entry were observed on the front entrance; however, the rear door lock appeared to have been tampered with.

Section 5: Initial Actions Taken

The manager immediately contacted the Ernakulam Central Police Station. Responding officers arrived at 06:40 hrs and secured the scene. CCTV footage from the restaurant's internal and external cameras was preserved. Staff members were interviewed and asked not to disturb the area until forensic examination was completed.

Section 6: Witnesses

The following individuals have been identified as potential witnesses and their statements are filed separately under this case number:

- Mr. Mohammed Ashraf K. — Restaurant Manager
- Mr. Bineesh Thomas — Kitchen Assistant (on late shift)
- Ms. Leena Joseph — Cleaner (departed premises at 01:30 hrs)

KERALA POLICE — CRIME INVESTIGATION DEPARTMENT
INCIDENT REPORT

Section 7: Officer Remarks

Based on initial assessment, this appears to be an opportunistic theft targeting prepared food inventory. The rear exit is located in a poorly lit alley not covered by nearby street cameras. Further investigation to focus on CCTV analysis from neighbouring establishments and cross-referencing with known similar incidents in the area.
